Jurupa effectively function as an extension of your brand and seamlessly integrate with your HR department, serving as a trusted partner.

Most tech companies face a perennial catch 22: the desire to launch, go-to-market and grow rapidly by assembling the best possible talent in the shortest possible time.

Costs associated with hiring can be prohibitive and therefore many founders and CEOs find themselves restricted to searching within their own networks and by consequence, cut themselves off from the wider talent pool.

Jurupa can help to solve these problems by offering the best of both worlds – sourcing and securing outstanding talent but without the huge expense.

Our proposition allows for:

Accelerated growth

Reduced headaches

Significantly lower hiring costs

Financial transparency and visibility of projected spend

A dedicated account manager

Support and market insights on tap to help you grow your business

A seamless extension of your team

An engaged and relevant talent pool

A trusted partner

SLAs for your peace of mind

Consistently high standards

Proven track record
